1. And once again I look at you
I watch you breathe
I watch you dance
I tend to see you without dress
Oh, love how dear is yourself
To me myself and I
I'll watch your every step
To moment when I die.
2. Sustainable or not
Me and essence of the God
Are one, when you are on my side
Come dear, join my one kind of a ride!
3. The purity of madness
That is my love to you
The passion and desire
That I inflict and feel to you
Make strongest among the men
Squeal and lose their center
Because today and it's you and me
And no bartender to make me love you
Even more tender
4. The madness of the Gods
Is nothing to comparison
Of what I tend to feel to you
There are no enough words
To feel the pages
That I want to share with you!
5. Whenever you look at me
I see the gentle person that you are
The person that is there
Whenever I will need
Whenever my own heartbeat
Will pump the blood and life in me
You will remain watching and loving
The true one that is forever your to be.
6. Time shows that life is impermanent
Time shows that kisses fly away with the wind
Time shows that mint turns rotten
Time shows that love is stronger than distance
If that love is real.
7. Life is faster than bullet
Than ray of a sun
Sunday mornings are tundras among
The wildest fun

Sunday mornings are essence for those who
Are willing to run!

8. Wildest dreams,
On every occasion
Let you enjoy the sweet relocation
Time after time, people seek and people hide
Master - she whispers don't leave us behind!
9. Maestro sings and dances
He is bigger than life
And there is a mistress awaits him
In the shadow of the Sun
She stands so closely to the border pit
She waits for the roses to fall and gift her kiss
To him, with first rays of Sun.
10. Life turns away from the man
When he runs after gold
There are reasons and sums
Always untold
They deliver us all
To the nonsense of old
But true Love is more valuable
Than 10 Suns full of gold!
11. In deepest chambers of mind
There are mysteries that would never be solved
In deepest chambers of soul
There are secrets untold
I only wish
I only want
To find you, my dear
That wouldn't mind to get lost in my mind
To get lost in my soul.
12. Oh, single message from old
Come along
Come along
We will talk together
About distances that would never unfold
We will talk about mysteries big and small
We will locate our prominent truth
Prominent duty to keep it all solved
13. People from different countries
Come forth come along
They will think and absorb
Many different ways
All I wish for is essence
That will bring forth your secret love.
14. Broken whisper of voice
Broken message from Gods
Broken heart
Broken soul
All are they messages for the same goal
For the goal forgetting and letting it go

As I changes through out your life
You find it all complete and within your own
Half broken soul.

15. Falling star and falling Sun
All it is wilderness you can not outrun
Peace and quiet
Peace and love
I wonder if
I wonder where
Will you gain control
After all
After all
All I wish
Is place in your heart and that's all
16. Epic sunset
Epic sunrise
People don't think once or even twice
People know there is life and there is death
People know when to run and when to hide
All that I know is that people
Should have a leader
And that leader should have a soul
Soul is gained through the loving of all
17. Sunset and Sunrise
People fall, run and twist when it's nice
I just adore their silly ways
After all I'm humane
And know that we have only limited days
18. The should is a fragile thing
The Love is God given mystery
I simply want to know whether there is a ring
Or there is nonsense in every single blink
But today I saw you
And it came clear
I love you for what you're not
And it makes me want to sing
19. The blood that looks alike to the wine
Time shows that wine turns to blood
When you drink it
It is secure to say that love
Is predictable for those who drink wine
But those who drink blood
Neglect the peace for their own kind
20. The quiet and loud of all different noises
It turns round and around from merit big and small
You will surely know that life knows no compromises
But it surely knows a good soul
Peace and quiet to those who are in love

And thorny way to those who lose their own control

21. The time is a best friend
It heals the mind it heals the soul
It changes the way we treat it all
Eventually through space
We do confirm our grace
Alas the system is yet to be contained
Alas our mind is one small grain
But many minds are good enough
To change and to retain
What Gods wish us to sustain
22. The silence is secret poem
It's sacred in it's grace
And all we need as people
We need someone to make us sure
That what we say is nothing more than
A content of liberty of ways
23. Checkmate - Suzanne proclaimed
I knew she had already won
But it was of fun
To watch her plot
After all she had won the golden pot
24. People, time and space
All we seek for a certain grace
Empty mind and empty pocket
Are reasons for starvation
Full amount of ingots in brain
May make you appear insane
But truth is it all will enrich your soul
And lives of loved ones after all.
25. Vanity of business
And business of vanity
It all yet remains weird and bizarre
After all sciences and science
Of mindedness they all propel
God knows, certain things go to heaven
And certain to hell.
26. Anger of wickedness
And anger of blindness
Certainly time may heal it all
But science is true to itself
Cause art of mastering thought and feeling
May bring you a proper chilling
27. People will try to fetch a regret
People will try to fetch you a debt

But truth is to remain simple
When there is a sophistication
And when there simple confusion
Fetch the principle of informed conclusion

28. People run
They appear and disappear
They turn to nonsense
They turn to progress for answers
But what is always true
It's me and you
29. Provision and vision
They may be clear
May be vain
Certain amount of them may go insane
What is right and what is fake
Is well being of all human race
When you know what is at stake
You know it's life and death
Are at debate
30. People feel the emotions
And you know they are qualified motions
Yet certain things as some of us know
Turn to pleasure and some other don't
What is life is the uncertain being walking
But life is true to those who are merciful to weak
And kind to sick
And strong when there is someone who is defenseless
I might put myself at a risk
But I know you will love for my reasoned trick
31. You will rock my world
Regardless if I live or if I die
You will rock my world
Cause you know the sun
And the stars are high
When you are here by my side
I'm not afraid, not afraid to fly
32. Different scenery will open to my eyes
Different nonsense will pass in front of me
People will be sure whether you're right or wrong
And all I know, is that at times I want to cry
Want to shed my tears and lay on my bed without purpose
Or a reason to be looking ahead
But when you open the door
And look at me with tender smile
I know, I know I want you to be mine
33. Some say they can't control their lust
And they swear and do misconducts
All I want is to know is if you are here for love

Or for breaking more our already half-broken hearts?

34. Thousand Jingles
Thousand sounds
Wonderful sounds that make us believe
In something higher than heaven
Brighter than stars
I want you to be smiling for me
In heart of hearts!
35. Journey begun
People deliver and people run
I know you will wonder
I know you will rumble
But what is for sure
It's that time comes in
And time goes out
All I can say
Is that, that I want to be around.
36. Complain or not
Be silly or smart
Be gloomy or gleeful
I will always be there to make sure
You're thankful for living this day and staying alive
37. Pain or Joy
I will be there to play along with your ploy
Pain or Joy
Pain or Joy
I will be there to be around when you have no one
To say, you like life more than the others when they say they enjoy
38. Gnostic or not
You are my favorite part of our Lord
Our God
You are there when I need a sparkle
You are there when it's lonely
You are there when I need someone
To be the message and messenger from our God.
39. Easy wind blows
Streets are still empty and so are you and me
All I wish for is to have wishful thinking
And be part of the friends who will meet you at your journey
Your road.
All I want to is be friendly, be good to you and your journey.
Be closer to you than the earth and the God.
40. Dog is my best friend
Your dog
It taught me to be gentle

To be wild
It taught me youthful
And be full of mind
Right now all I want is be your dog
Be your friend, be your heart and your mind.

41. I will take you as you are
As long as time allows to hold you
I gonna be by your side and make it a blessing
That we are here as we are
42. Spain has the fields of barley
And the wind
England has Big Ben
And the Shield
I have you
And you have me
Let's make it better than Europe ever can be
43. I may be evil
I may be rude
But I know that for you I will always
Have enough of Good
Enough of Warmth
Enough of real me
Enough of real dude.
44. Time passes by and I understand
The Hunter in me gonna die hunting for the desire
That fire can not burn out and make me dead
All I know, is that, I'm here and nothing can make it better
That the moments I've shared with you,
After all, all the valleys and pits of you young body
Is all I came to love
Is all I came to know
I might end up in mountain
Or down in a desert,
But you my dear will always be here
In the center of my soul
45. You put that soul on me and I understand
There is ain't no good in that groove when
I'm not around your shell
Don't make that wicked magic roll of your tongue
All I know and wanna own is simple as that cheap holly grail
I wanna know
I wanna own
The Job I had and bow to you
Cause you're the dearest I've ever had
46. Nothing at all
May leave this mind
And it totally may leave you blind
But you figure it all as it is
Only pick when pocket wide and you are sane
Keep your eyes wide opened and hands soft as dough

I'm telling you like it is
Be qualified, be generous and be incentive
I'm telling you like it
It's all you should know

47. You can beg, cheat and lie
I wonder, I wish and I try
All I wanted to know is how deep
Your love can grow
Let me ask you why do you hide?
Every time I ask how may I make you apply
I really know you need,
That's why!
48. The night brings the secret tide
The life brings in the secret byte
All I wanna know today is how you do
Whatever you ask yourself to
I know I wish
I know I should
I know I have
The time, the manner, the speed
Don't mess up by saying you have no greed
Why you take it all so fly?
Wanna love you all over again
You know I'm your man!
49. Know all - be all
Said an old man
Who knew it all
After months of treasure holding
Bewildering amount of pain coming to achieve
The essence of purity too
I wish you could cycle the impulse
Of trying the Padawan in winning the battles
With a mere soul
Take a step
Make it controlled
50. Chilling in my shorts
Knowing Kung Fu will make you
Sharp like Bruce Lee
Owning a gun will make you act like
Eastwood, when you gonna act, act stronger than wood,
Dude!
51. I call you whenever I'm down
I hope you can find the right words for me
After all, all I can think of are songs
That you were writing
When we first met
Now I'm ready to leave it all just to be with you
As I said I can build from ground up
Just to help you make yourself a star

52. Empty promises
They make us seem lonely
And I'm sure it may sound rough
But I'm here for you
Cause you know that's the way we are
53. Time will take it's toll
And make us into stones
But here we are
Joining in one radical song
I only wish we could not complain
People are fighting
Let's better say there is life in us yet
54. Casual misunderstanding
Dubious complaining
They all make us weak
We better seek for distance from
The evil in the darkness that lays ahead
At every peak
I wish we could simply let it go and submit
To the light that is supporting us as beacon
55. Empty endeavors lead to mischievous things
However my feelings to you aren't empty
All I want to do is look after you
Cause you know, my life without you would be empty
56. Liquor and Gin make me think about sin
Every time I drink I find myself looser than wimp
Perhaps you shouldn't read it and question each word
Perhaps you should read in between
But I still drink like a wimp and think about you dressed
In white, you could be my bride
But I spoiled everything and made myself
Way to proud for that kind of height
57. Apples to apples they say
All I want from my life
Is to be it a tree, an apple tree
With enough youth and fruits
For me and you
58. Magic happens once in a while
If it happens grasp that little while
I want to say that all I mind is love
From mother and a girl that would be mother
To offspring of mine
That kind
The only kind you should also be bearing in mind
59. IP and a host
I wonder if there is a holy ghost
The only thing that should bother thine mind
It is the package of chocolate and wine
I'm about to send you through Internet divine

60. Entire job of the Cupids
Is to shoot arrows at us when we crave
For nothing else but lust,
However if you got an arrow into your heart
And it bleeds, it may only mean
You're a human and not a hog
You're a human and you were born to dream
To dream about love
Like Gods
61. Sour Cream, may make cats squeal
But it's too late to change their nature
We men think of money as of our sour cream,
But the difference between us is that sour cream
Makes cats happy never mind the amount of essence
While money is never enough
62. Fight over little you have,
Cause some of us don't have even this
Time to lie, time to love, time to die
Don't ask me - why?
Only answer I have is that we all were born to die
63. Figure of speech, they all may lie
They all make us seem so important
So deep minded,
However the truth is, we are all fools
With arms stretched into the dark
Searching for someone to look for something together
To be true, I know you are there reading this line
It gives me certain peace of mind.
64. Time and peace
War and dismay
What do I think of my love
Why my emotions wouldn't obey?!
65. Step son or step dad
We choose favorite nonsense over the tardy profundity
Time elapses people collapse
But they do know there is beautiful show
Somewhere along, along the lines that are read slow
66. Milk and honey
Today you may buy 'em in every grocery store
I wish that God's promise the chosen nation
Was more than desert and war
I wish all people could live in peace and quiet
As little ants
However we all envy those who have cash and power

Unfortunately I have little and less with every hour

67. Wished for love
Alas, got frustration
I love they way she causes me pain
But I rather leave her and live my life in vain
68. I struggled so much to find her here
Once that I've got her around
I understood , there is God
And there is fear
69. I always knew the right way
But never followed, cause it was too hard
I know right now, that I should follow
At least the remaining part
I wish you too, have known the way
I wish you too, followed the grace
70. Cars, money, women and booze
You think you have it all, you have nothing to loose
I wish I could tell it is so
But do you my friend?
Do you really have soul?
